SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2002-094983

05/08/2015

Prior to the commencement of today's proceedings, Mother and Father were sworn.

The Court presents a summary of the case. The Court notes that Father filed a petition to modify child support on November 26, 2014; however, by minute entry dated April 9, 2015, Commissioner Morton noted deficiencies in Father's paperwork. Father has been given until May 21, 2015, to cure the deficiencies; otherwise, his Petition will be rejected.

Mother, having previously been sworn, now testifies she received the following payments: $534.00 on February 2, 2015, nothing in March, $534.00 on April 15, 2015, $534.00 on April 28, 2015, and $534.00 on May 6, 2015.

Father, having previously been sworn, now testifies.

Discussion is held.

Father states that he believes he is current in his support obligation; however, because he is incarcerated, he does not have access to his payment records at this time. His sister is making payments on his behalf.

Based on the matters presented,

The Court reserves finding Father in contempt pending the next review hearing.

IT IS ORDERED directing the Family Court Conference Center to provide the Court and the parties with an updated arrearage calculation and payment history based upon Division of Child Support Services records.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the arrears calculation reflects that Father is short the two March payments, Father shall pay the shortfall prior to the next review hearing.

Discussion is held regarding Father's petition to modify. Mother states that the copy she received does not reflect that it was filed with the Court.

The Court informs the parties that they may stipulate to modify child support by filing a stipulation and form of order for the Court's signature.

IT IS ORDERED setting this matter for Enforcement Review Hearing on June 12, 2015 at 2:15 p.m. (time allotted: 15 minutes), in this Division, for the purpose of reviewing Father's
